

GDPR – management of personal data

Lotus Land is a sole proprietorship run by Gunilla Andersson. On the 25th of May 2018 Sweden has among all other EU countries adopted the general protection of personal data known as General Data Protection Regulation – GDPR.

Lotus Land handles your personal data in accordance to GDPR, meaning

- Lotus Land are responsible for the personal data
- Personal data is saved in an exclusive customer file in connection with booking of any service or showing of interest for necessary further conversation
- Only necessary personal data are saved, such as name, address, phone number and email in the time frame of the service executed
- Personal data can upon request be removed at any given time as long as all invoices are paid in full
- Personal data information that are not in active use are automatically removed one year after last invoice
- Personal data are not provided to any third party

Lotus Land

info@lotusland.se

Gunilla Andersson

+46 (0)70 975 9448